Potbelly Sandwich Shop opened its newest location Tuesday at 6202 W. Park Blvd. — its first drive-through in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

General manager Camra Cargile of Plano will head the brand's new operations in Plano. Cargile has been a manager with Potbelly for two years and was most recently the general manager of the Firewheel Town Center shop in Garland.

Cargile is excited to be working again in a community that brings back fond memories of her Plano upbringing. She graduated from Plano East Senior High.

"We're thrilled to be a part of the vibrant Plano community and proudly welcome our new neighbors to the shop," said Cargile, who previously worked in Plano as an aquatics manager for six years. "We are deeply committed to engraining ourselves into the fabric of the community and building long-lasting relationships with our customers and the neighborhood organizations that serve Plano."

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR | CAMRA CARGILE

I am a resident of: Plano and have lived here since 1994.

The best part about growing up in Plano was: the ability to have the big city close for entertainment, but the small-town, neighborhood feel.

My college alma mater: Kansas State University

My family: We are very close and all live in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Best job in my career: I was a lifeguard for the city of Plano for six years and loved every minute of it.

Favorite restaurant/dish: is Carino's spicy chicken pasta.

My greatest accomplishment (so far): is graduating with honors at KSU.

Organizations I'm involved with: Red Cross and Margarita Society.

My hobbies: include skydiving. I've been jumping for about five years since college and I have around 700 jumps.

I am passionate about: meeting new people and creating relationships with my customers.

Words I live by: Be who you are and say what you feel because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind.

Final words: I've been told that I look like Marsha Brady from The Brady Bunch.
